

Changes to the original Oct 2010 report Valentine Horsley and Sarah Kendrick Family
The current document incorporates these changes.

12 Dec 2010

Page 8, para. 5: Corrects the misinformation in Horsley Families of America (Scott and Horsley, 1986) that Valentine Horsley's sons Joseph and John won in the 1832 Cherokee Land Lottery. (Endnote sources changed accordingly)

Page 11, Endnote 24: GeogialInfo web page on the 1821 Treaty of Indian Springs is now:
<http://georgiainfo.galileo.usg.edu/indspri1.htm>

Pages 20-21, Notes for 1832 Lottery: Corrects the Horsley Families misinformation that Joseph and John won in this lottery. (Sources changed accordingly)

29 Jan 2011

Page 27: The section regarding James Horsley, son of Valentine and Sarah, has been revised.

The information I was given about the obituary of Valentine's son James Horsley was mistaken. James Horsley, husband of Elizabeth Bullard, died in Terrell Co. (not Jasper Co.), GA "at the home of son [in-law] John Witchard," husband of James' daughter Nancy Jane Horsley.

[Source: Mary Overby, Obituaries Published by the Christian Index Vol. 2. 1880-1899 (Macon, GA: Georgia Baptist Historical Society, Mercer University, 1975) p. 117; citing Christian Index of 8 July 1886, p. 15, col. 1]
